

WILSON LEARNING EMEA REGION JOINS NEW GLOBAL WEBSITE: WILSONLEARNING.COM

6th September 2014, Beaconsfield, UK: Wilson Learning Worldwide's EMEA Headquarters today announce their official launch of new, region-specific webpages, residing on the company's global umbrella website – WilsonLearning.com.

As a global learning services company whose solutions span across a number of locations worldwide, Wilson Learning has incorporated a geotagging system, which enables all website visitors to successfully retrieve the most relevant information depending on their geographical location.

The re-designed WilsonLearning.com boasts a clean, modern design, which reflects the company's core values by offering an easy-to-navigate functionality and a content rich experience allowing users to quickly select what they want to review based on their unique needs. Visitors from EMEA locations will benefit from anglicised content, British audio and video features and region-relevant solution information.

Wilson Learning EMEA's Managing Director, Samantha North, comments "We are excited and proud to have joined the WilsonLearning.com. We are now better able to provide our customers – and those interested in our global services – with a consistent and integrated Wilson Learning Worldwide web experience, regardless of their location."
